100% is the maximum possible score for each Mind-Frame.

Significant Scores

This Profile shows how much you like each of the 6 kinds of thinking, not necessarily how well you do them.

Under 40%: It does not appeal to you, so you avoid or neglect it.

Over 70%: Strong drive to use it – perhaps too often and not appropriately.

Your Hard BLUE wants everything to be logically sound.

Your Hard RED depends most upon accurate information and specific details.

Your Hard GREEN is resourceful, always inventing new versions of things.

Your Soft BLUE is committed to personal values and beliefs.

Your Soft RED cares about the impressions used to convey the truth.

Your Soft GREEN is fulfilled by a sense of vision and creative imagination.
